

304 Stainless Steel Round Bars

Chhaged Steel & Alloys are aggressively venturing into exporting of our products to various countries. 304 Stainless Steel Round Bar is a long cylindrical metal bar that is thermally conductive than carbon steel and less electrical. They are long cylindrical metal bars that are measured thought-out in diameter. It has a minimum of 18% chromium and 8% nickel and 0.08% of carbon. 304 Stainless Steel does not rust because of the interaction between its alloying elements and its austenitic steel through having non-magnetic features in the annealed form that offers excellent corrosion.

304 Stainless Steel Rods are the round cross-section with solid-state and processing methods are heat treating and machining and cutting. It also comes in the quarter form and normally includes a cross-section based on the shape of rod or bar stock. It is implemented in different applications such as bearing, gear, shafts, fittings, valves, mining, good processing. Stainless Steel 304 Hex Bar are the smooth surface finishing in machinable with hex-shaped bar. It produces excellent mechanical properties and is easy to weld, form, cut, and machine.

304 Stainless Steel Flat Bar provides excellent corrosion and rust resistance which doesn't require any special pre-heating or welding. They are often used for mining infrastructure, residential, engineering, and transport. 304 Stainless Steel Square Bar is commonly replaced by 304 Stainless Steel 316 where 304 Stainless Steel 304 is too sensitive to pitting or crevice corrosion by general corrosion in acid applications. They are easy to shape, cut weld, form, and machine with the proper requirement.
